

WRITE YOUR NAME INTO HISTORY AT OUR NEW PAVILION...

BUY A BRICK. LEAVE A LEGACY

---

In 2015, the Aiken Polo Club, led by Alan L. Corey III, built an award-winning viewing pavilion at historic Whitney Polo Field. On April 3, 2015, Alan, 73, died of a heart attack doing what he enjoyed most, playing polo. In Alan's honor we are moving forward with his work and wish to ensure Aiken Polo continues to thrive and is available to residents and guests of Aiken to enjoy for generations to come.

1.

Buy a commemorative brick and be forever linked to Whitney Field, where polo has been played every Sunday since 1882. Let's band together and keep history alive.
